

March 25, 2002

Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg
City Hall
New York, NY 10007
(212) 788-9600 (phone)
(212) 788-7476 (fax)

Dear Mayor Bloomberg:

I support passage of a bill intended to require return of the Giuliani papers to public custody and strengthen the mandate of the Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) to ensure that such a taking of valuable public records will not occur again. And should such legislation pass, I urge you to sign it into law.

Sincerely,

March 25, 2002

Gifford Miller
Speaker of the Council of the City of New York
336 East 73rd Street (Suite C)
New York, New York 10021
Fax:(212) 535-6098
miller@council.nyc.ny.us

Dear Speaker Miller:

I support passage of a bill intended to require return of the Giuliani papers to public custody and strengthen the mandate of the Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) to ensure that such a taking of valuable public records will not occur again.

Sincerely,

March 25, 2002

Bill Perkins
163 W. 125 St. 7th Floor
New York, NY
212 662-4440(district)
212 932-1130 (fax)
perkins@council.nyc.ny.us

Dear Council Member Perkins:

I support passage of a bill intended to require return of the Giuliani papers to public custody and strengthen the mandate of the Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) to ensure that such a taking of valuable public records will not occur again.

Sincerely,

March 25, 2002

Eva Moskowitz
370 Lexington Avenue (Suite 2001A)
New York, NY 10017
212 818-0580 (district)
212 818-0706 (fax)
moskowitz@council.nyc.ny.us

Dear Council Member Moskowitz:

I support passage of a bill intended to require return of the Giuliani papers to public custody and strengthen the mandate of the Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) to ensure that such a taking of valuable public records will not occur again.

Sincerely,

March 25, 2002

Michael Nelson
3810-A Nostrand Avenue
Brooklyn, NY 11235
718 368-9176 (district)
212 227-1246 (fax)
nelson@council.nyc.ny.us

Dear Council Member Nelson:

I support passage of a bill intended to require return of the Giuliani papers to public custody and strengthen the mandate of the Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) to ensure that such a taking of valuable public records will not occur again.

Sincerely,

March 25, 2002

Madeline Provenzano
2931 Westchester Square,
Bronx, NY 10461
718 931-6060 (district)
718 518-8443 (fax)
provenzano@council.nyc.ny.us

Dear Council Member Provenzano:

I support passage of a bill intended to require return of the Giuliani papers to public custody and strengthen the mandate of the Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) to ensure that such a taking of valuable public records will not occur again.

Sincerely,

March 25, 2002

Christine Quinn
265 West 40th St (Suite 803)
New York, NY 10018
212 768-4344 (district)
212 768-4380 (fax)
quinn@council.nyc.ny.us

Dear Council Member Quinn:

I support passage of a bill intended to require return of the Giuliani papers to public custody and strengthen the mandate of the Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) to ensure that such a taking of valuable public records will not occur again.

Sincerely,

March 25, 2002

Philip Reed
105 East 116th Street
New York, NY 10029
212 828-9800 (district)
212 722-6378 (fax)
reed@council.nyc.ny.us

Dear Council Member Reed:

I support passage of a bill intended to require return of the Giuliani papers to public custody and strengthen the mandate of the Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) to ensure that such a taking of valuable public records will not occur again.

Sincerely,

March 25, 2002

Joseph Addabbo Jr.
159-53 102 Street
Queens, NY 11414
718 738-1111 (district)
718 322-5760 (fax)
addabbo@council.nyc.ny.us
Dear Council Member Addabbo:

I support passage of a bill intended to require return of the Giuliani papers to public custody and strengthen the mandate of the Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) to ensure that such a taking of valuable public records will not occur again.

Sincerely,

March 25, 2002

Leroy Comrie
113-43 Farmers Blvd.
Queens, NY 11412
718 776-3700 (district)
718 776-3798 (fax)
comrie@council.nyc.ny.us

Dear Council Member Comrie:

I support passage of a bill intended to require return of the Giuliani papers to public custody and strengthen the mandate of the Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) to ensure that such a taking of valuable public records will not occur again.

Sincerely,

March 25, 2002

Peter Vallone Jr.
22-45 31st Street,
Queens, NY 11105
718 274-4500 (district)
718 726-0357 (fax)
vallonejr@council.nyc.ny.us

Dear Council Member Vallone:

I support passage of a bill intended to require return of the Giuliani papers to public custody and strengthen the mandate of the Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) to ensure that such a taking of valuable public records will not occur again.

Sincerely,

GOTHAM CENTER FOR NEW YORK CITY HISTORY
GIULIANI PAPERS CAMPAIGN

The Graduate School and University Center

The City University of New York

365 Fifth Avenue

Room 6103

New York, NY 10016-4309

fax: 212 817-1541

email: gotham@gc.cuny.edu

Dear Mike Wallace:

I support passage of a bill intended to require return of the Giuliani papers to public custody and strengthen the mandate of the Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) to ensure that such a taking of valuable public records will not occur again.

Sincerely,